WHY ST. PANCRAS FOR CHRISTMAS 2024?

The launch of St. Pancras' Christmas tree is a highly-anticipated moment in everyone's calendars. It's a unique opportunity to use this iconic space differently to bring your story to life.

Pop-ups spaces are in high-demand, especially during Christmas, as St. Pancras:
(As of October 2023)

- Attracts over 40m visitors per year
- Offers access to multiple markets under one roof
- Has a wide appeal - welcomes a diverse demographic profile of visitors across all ages.
- Visitors with a dwell time of 45 minutes on average across Commuters/business travellers as well as leisure travellers
- Attracts visitors & spend through having an array of well-known brands across retail & F&B

To boost visitor volume in 2024, we continue to work closely with partners on our common mission to encourage people to travel via train in a bid to reduce their carbon emissions and boost tourism. In 2024, our station's brand portfolio expands, and we continue to work closely with our retail partners to develop campaigns to drive footfall and spend. We also dedicate resource to ensure that art and culture can always be found in St. Pancras.

MAKE THE TREE YOURS THIS CHRISTMAS

We're looking forward to seeing the wild and wonderful ideas that you have this year.

When reviewing potential designs, think about the impact. Is it...

Themes for consideration, although not essential to comply with, include Arts & Culture, Music, Sustainability, Wellbeing, Community & Charity.

TREE SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

There is a sponsorship fee for this incredible opportunity, but in return, we offer a host of benefits and work closely with your brand to maximise impact.

BRAND EXPOSURE:

- Much more than a standard advertising opportunity.
- Highly anticipated, stand-out campaign amongst the public & media.
- Public plan trips to just see the installation.
- Impact is huge both from physical visitors and digital awareness.
- Visible from multiple locations of the station including train platforms, The Grand Terrace and main shopping arcade.
- Proven record of boosting sales or engagement aligning with the purpose of a brand's theme/direction.

AUDIENCE:

Towards the end of 2023, we saw:

- Fairly even gender split - 47% male and 53% female
- 75% national and 25% international visitors
- A slightly higher proportion of 25–35-year-olds, but still high number of 18 – 24's and 35 +.
- A strong leisure audience, with commuter/business as per hybrid work schedules. All primary segments for targeting regularly.

PR & SPECIAL EVENTS:

We will launch the Tree with the sponsor and make sure St. Pancras remains the most talked about Christmas destination throughout the festive period.

Our PR team work closely with the sponsor to decide on the best media outreach approach. This includes:

- Use media, influencers and passers-by to amplify the conversation and drive footfall to the tree
- Includes the drafting and issuing of press release & hosting media.
- Managing the official photo shoot of the tree on behalf of the sponsor to secure a professional gallery of newsworthy images available for all parties to use.
- Can support/partner with the sponsor's launch party at the station and supply or brief spokespeople.
- Can create or support sustain activity via news releases, media and influencer visits.

Our media targets are wider than just London; we target media in multiple counties across the UK including Kent, Sussex, Surrey, Hampshire, Gloucestershire, Nottinghamshire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Devon, Cornwall, as well as national and internationals for the greatest exposure for the brand and campaign.

IN-STATION SCREENS:

To drive footfall to the tree from various locations of the station, it is:

- Promoted on the 10 x Passenger Information Screens (PIPs)
- On rotation on 6 x double sided digital screens.
- Where possible, the tree to be included in Christmas advertorials and advertisements by HS1 in media over the Christmas period (tbc in 2024)

PARTNER OUTREACH

As an anticipated installation, content is shared to our train operator's engaged audiences. This includes East Midlands Railway, Southeastern Railway, Eurostar and Thameslink. We will always share the release with our neighbours at St. Pancras Renaissance hotel too, including their concierge.

SOCIAL MEDIA

- Owned content - Bespoke posts to our audiences located in London, the wider UK and Internationally, as well as sharing user generated content and influencer posts (audience stats as of January 2024.)
- User generated content – substantial potential for UGC with strong designs. In 2023, 3.2M social media engagements generated by 678 pieces of social coverage from key media publications in the UK alone.

MAKE THE MOST OF IT...

A SHOPPABLE EXPERIENCE

There is an additional opportunity to create a pop-up shop or an experiential stand on an adjacent site within the station – the image shows Site B located next to the tree.

This is an exceptional opportunity for a sponsor to run experiences or capitalise on gifting opportunities at a key time of year. Site B measures 5m x 5m with a maximum height of 2.2m.

ADVERTISING SCREENS

HS1 can facilitate opportunities to utilise digital advertising space with JC Decaux:

- 2 x Large-format Trans-vision screens
- 80" state-of-the-art digital screens around the station
- Audio-visual trans-vision screen takeover, leading from St Pancras towards the London Underground

COLLABORATION WITH TENANTS

HS1 can help facilitate partnerships with tenants at St Pancras. Opportunities could include:

- A collaboration to create a Christmas cocktail or special product
- Promotional offers on behalf of your brand
- Book signings / Events

NEED TO KNOW...

- A 6m x 5m area can be used for the tree installation (Site C)
- The Christmas Tree would be in situ for up to 8-weeks
- Maximum height is up to 14m
- This could be created by a single brand, or as a collaboration
- Power and data available at site (upgrades available dependent on requirements)
- Need to consider 360-degree views of the tree as well as views from the both the Grand Terrace above and the Arcade as it can be seen from all angles
- Separate opportunity for a retail pop up site next to the tree for the duration of the installation (Site B)
- All proposals are subject to approval from HS1 Ltd and the station operator (NRHS) and Historic England.

Please review site details for Site C in the St Pancras Installation Guidelines:
<https://highspeed1.co.uk/media/jquh5tme/temporary-installation-guide-updated-aug-2021.pdf>

FOR THE SUBMISSION

We understand the resource required to create proposals, so this does not need to be a substantial presentation or include detailed production drawings but for the initial submission, we do need to know:

- Who the brand is
- The general design concept, story/theme (initial drawings)
- Size – giving us an idea of how impactful it would be from a 360° view
- Overarching objectives - so that we can assess how we can best support it over Christmas.
- Importantly - the 'WOW' factor. What will make it stand out from the crowd and different to other years.

Proposals should be shared with HS1 by April; however, a sponsor could be selected prior to this.

Feel free to contact us should you have any questions regarding the opportunity or would like more information on the timeline of activity, or alternatively, submit your proposal to:

The Prettiest Christmas Trees In London 2023

The city's most magnificent trees

By Olivia Emily | 1 Day Ago

St Pancras International

The internet is (rightly) obsessed with this train station tree, once again rethinking the parameters of what a Christmas tree really needs to be. (According to St Pancras in recent years, a 'tree' merely needs to be a tall pyramidal-ish shape.)

On 1 November, St Pancras International kicked off the festive season with their bookish tree. A haven for bookworms – and inspired by the magical ability of both books and train travel to transport people to exciting new places – the tree is a result of a collaboration with iconic bookseller Hatchards and publishing house Penguin. Standing 12 metres tall, the 'tree' is a library of books, featuring 270 shelves, more than 3,800 books, a winding staircase climbing to the top, plus eight cubby holes that visitors can sit inside. In those bays are speakers, and customers can listen to a five minute excerpt from an audiobook or reading provided exclusively by Penguin Books, featuring authors including Charles Dickens, Beatrix Potter, Zadie Smith, Robin Stevens, Gabrielle Charbon, Alice Waters, Rick Riordan, Michael Morpurgo, Richard Osman and Tom Fletcher.

TimeOut

St Pancras has unveiled its spectacular 2023 Christmas tree – and it's made out of books

What a novel idea

Now that Halloween is out the way, it means it's socially acceptable to start listening to Mariah Carey wearing Christmas jumpers and necking ten pints after work every night. It also means that spectacular Christmas trees will be popping up all around the city, bringing festive joy to all Londoners. The St Pancras Christmas tree for 2023 has just been revealed, and it's a real stunner. This year's St Pancras tree is made out of more than 3,800 books.

St. Pancras International's Magical Christmas Tree Has Been Unveiled

St Pancras International's highly anticipated Christmas tree has been unveiled, and it's doused with the magic of literature this year.

The grand reveal of the St Pancras tree has taken place today (November 1) and as always, there's a distinctly festive feel to the whole affair that allows us to forget about the stresses of daily life, just for a moment. This year, they've once again gone for the slightly unconventional approach, after last year's skyline-resembling tower. Though it's still being referred to as a Christmas tree, it might be fair to say it's more a Christmas bookshelf (still resembling the shape of a tree, of course!).

The Christmas Tree at Kings Cross St Pancras Station

The Christmas tree at St Pancras Station is normally pretty special. (In the past there's been a Disney, Tiffany and Cirque Du Soleil themed tree), but this year may just beat them all. In collaboration with the UK's oldest bookshop, Hatchards, the tree is made out of 3,800 books! Standing at 12-metres-high and featuring a winding staircase, 270 book shelves stacked with hand-painted books, there's also comfy booths at the bottom to sit and read or listen to audio excerpts from books by Charles Dickens, Beatrix Potter, Zadie Smith and Richard Osman. Absolutely stunning and will make travel this Christmas way less hellish than usual!
